GENERAL ORDER NUMBER 1B (GO-1B) PUBLIC HEALTH MEASURES FOR U.S. ARMY GARRISON STUTTGART

APPLICABILITY. This General Order applies to all individuals stationed, assigned, or attached to U.S. Army Europe units in the USAG Stuttgart area of responsibility. It also applies to all Service Members, Department of the Army Civilians, Department of Defense Civilians, Family Members, and others present on, or seeking access to, the military installations of USAG Stuttgart.

1. STATEMENT OF MILITARY PURPOSE AND NECESSITY. This General Order identifies conduct that is prejudicial to the good order and discipline, health, and safety of all personnel within USAG Stuttgart and measures for the preventing the of the spread of COVID-19.¹

2. PUBLIC HEALTH MEASURES. Public health measures, to include restrictions on freedom of movement, enacted by the host nation government in response to COVID-19 will be obeyed on and off military installations.² The following additional measures apply to those subject to GO-1B:

a. Exceptions for individual travel may be authorized pursuant to the SECDEF Stop Move Order. Official travel will be processed through command channels. Unofficial travel is limited to within national borders, and must be conducted in accordance with host nation public health measures, and does not result in an overnight stay away from an individual's residence.

b. Locations, facilities, or services prohibited from access or use by the host nation will not be accessed, frequented, or used by personnel subject to this General Order. Personnel will adhere to and not exceed the social distancing / group limits set by the host nation.

c. Individuals may conduct on-post and off-post outdoor physical fitness activities as long as the activity is conducted in low density locations and social distance of at least 1.5 meters between non-family members/non-cohabitants is maintained at all times.

d. Quarantine and Isolation. Individuals subject to this General Order GO-1B will comply with official orders and directions issued from a medical authority and/or supervisor regarding quarantine, isolation, and /or conditional release.

3. PUNITIVE ORDER. Paragraphs 2, 2a, 2b, and 2d are punitive. Persons subject to the UCMJ may be punished thereunder, face adverse administrative action, or be removed from the installation. Those not subject to the UCMJ may face administrative action such as Bar from the installation, revocation of Individual Logistic Support, involuntary Early Return of Dependents and / or host nation legal penalties.

4. EXCEPTIONS. Requests for exceptions of any provision of this General Order for USAREUR personnel must be submitted by the endorsing commander, through the USAG-Stuttgart Commander, to the undersigned for decision. Exceptions for non-USAREUR personnel will be processed through that individual's chain of command.

5. EFFECTIVE DATE. This General Order is effective immediately. This General Order rescinds General Order 1A, dated 27 March 2020. It will remain in effect until rescinded by me.
