MEMORANDUM FOR US Army Stuttgart Garrison Army Family Housing Residents

SUBJECT: USAG Stuttgart Smoking Policy

1. References:

a. Department of Defense Instruction 1010.10 (Health Promotion and Disease Prevention), 16 Mar 2022

b. Army Regulation 600-63 (Army Health Promotion), 14 April 2015

2. In an effort to improve quality of life for USAG Stuttgart Army Family Housing residents, smoking on balconies in family housing is hereby prohibited. Smoking in housing entry ways, common areas, stairwells, basements, and on playgrounds remains prohibited.

3. Residents may smoke within their family housing quarters but must ensure doing so does not cause smoke to enter a neighbor's home. Any damages to government quarters, associated with smoking, including but not limited to painting and removal of smell, will be the responsibility of the resident.

4. Residents are encouraged to smoke outdoors but may not do so closer than 50 feet of a playground or government facility.

5. The point of contact for this action is Madeleine Bates, JD, Chief, Housing at phone number DSN (314) 596-2224, or email: madeleine.bates.civ@army.mil.
